BARTENDER'S BEAUTY CONTEST 2011

By Elyssa Schwartz
Contributing Writer

Each, booze and babes in bikinis. This may sound like a typical Sunday afternoon for most. But for many InTheBizzers, it is how we spent our Sunday nights for the months of June and July.

Since June 12th, InTheBiz® teamed up with the owner of Ocean Manor Resort, Frank Talerico, to host the Bartender's Beauty Contest. The competitions took place at Bamboo Beach Tiki Bar, Ocean Manor Resort in Fort Lauderdale and started at 6:00 P.M. Each contestant had a chance to win $6000 cash among several other prizes.

As the crowd assembled at the bar, the contestants gathered in the ballroom to primp and meet with the judges. The judges were usually a panel of 10 people who were willing to pay the $100 fee each week. From week to week there were familiar faces on the panel such as Samantha, the owner of On the Ocean Salon, Vito from Café Sportivo, Joe & Dominic From Italian Food Depot and Gary from Formula 1 Lotus Group, just to name a few. However, celebrity judges made appearances as well including Dennis Rodman, Chris Warren the former running back for the Seattle Seahawks, Jennifer a former cheerleader for the Buffalo Jill's, Doc M.J., Sports Medicine Doctor for the Miami Dolphins, Rashad Evans, UFC Former Light Heavyweight, Joseph the Hairstylist to the Stars, and Damon Richard, owner of Celebrity Boxing. Judging the contest was serious business. Each score given determined the fate of the girl crowned Ms. InTheBiz® 2011.

Okay, now to the girls. Each contestant was judged based on a scale from 1-10. Once Frank got the crowd's attention, he introduced the judges and it was time for the contest to commence. The girls were called up one-by-one to strut across the catwalk in their bikinis. Most weeks, the bikinis were donated by companies such as Bud Light and Ritchie Swimwear. The audience roared with cheer and whistles at each sexy lady. After about a half hour intermission, the girls were brought back on the stage for the evening wear portion judged solely by crowd participation. A sound meter determined which girl got the most crowd approval.

The scores were added up, and the winner of the competition was named. Frank announced the top three and kindly invited the remaining girls to leave the stage. The first place winner received $1000 cash and a penthouse stay. Second place won a penthouse stay as well along with $200. Both girls moved on to the finals. Third place scored a gift certificate to the On the Ocean Salon. The prizes didn't end there; each contestant received a $25 bar tab and a one night stay at Ocean Manor.

At last, the final week was among us and the weather couldn't be any better. August 14 was a beautiful day for the finals. The girls gathered in the penthouse with Frank and the judges for pre-contest celebratory champagne and refreshments. After, the girls suited up in their bikinis. Some sported bikinis donated by contestant, Priscilla Prunella. The girls were called to walk down the catwalk one last time, bikinis followed by evening wear. As the contest came to a close, Frank once again announced what prizes were at stake, thanked the audience, the judges and of course, the girls.

Although all of the girls were beautiful, there could only be one named Ms. InTheBiz® 2011. Stephanie Greco from Anthony's Coal Fire Pizza in Plantation, Kenzi Viator, bartender from Tokyo Blue, and Sage Schroder from Timpano were the top three. Along with being the September cover girl, first place won $5,000 cash and a penthouse stay. Second place received a Rolex watch donated by John Paul Jewelers and third place was given a vacation for two at the British Colonial Hilton, in the Bahamas.

In the end, 72 girls had the chance to win, but only one stood out. Finally, Frank announced Stephanie Greco as the winner and crowned her Ms. InTheBiz® 2011.

"I'm really surprised! A lot of regulars and friends and family came out. It was so much fun doing this." Greco said, "All of the other girls are awesome and very sweet."

Check out the photos in this issue of our magazine as well as on our website InTheBizMagazine.com!

All of us at In The Biz® Magazine congratulate the ladies who entered this competition and a special thank you to the staff at Ocean Manor Resort for their hard work during each week of the competition. We also want to thank the judges and Mount Gay Rum for their support and sponsorship.

BARTENDER BEAUTY CONTEST 2011

Stephanie GRECO

BARTENDER

Born and raised in South Florida 21-year-old, Stephanie Greco is now Ms. InTheBiz® 2011. She was crowned on August 14, 2011 after a seven week competition that saw 72 ladies walk the catwalk in an attempt to win a five thousand dollar cash prize.

A server/bartender at Anthony's Coal Fired Pizza in Plantation, Greco claims that there is never a dull moment at her restaurant.

"Our restaurant is like a family, and our food is amazing," she tells us. In fact -- the food is so amazing that a customer once requested that she come home with him and "marinate his ribs."

What Greco enjoys most about working in the hospitality industry is the wide variety of people that she gets to meet on a regular basis. Getting to know people on a personal level keeps business interesting for Greco. Of course, work is interesting in other ways as well.

When asked what is the most unusual thing that has happened while you were working she said, "One time, a woman walked into the men's restroom, took a huge picture of Marilyn Monroe off the wall and attempted to walk out of the restaurant with it," "The picture was bigger than her."

Beautiful inside-and-out, Greco reveals that this competition was a first for her. Although she has never done anything like this before, she admits that she did not expect to have as much fun as she did and her overall experience was "awesome."

Kenzi VIATOR

2ND PLACE

Age: 24

Ethnicity: Spanish, Cherokee Indian & Irish

Where are you from? Nashville Tennessee, actually the outskirts, about 20 minutes from downtown Nashville, where some of the best musicians played. I grew up in the forests of the rolling Tennessee hills.

Where do you work? Bamboo Beach Tiki Bar & Tokyo Blue

What do you do for work? I am a bartender and I also work in the weddings and events department at the Ocean Manor Resort.

What do you like best about your job? I like the social aspect of bartending, I find there are many interesting people in this world and by chance I get to meet some of them. In turn I make new friends, I was recently reminded just how important friends really are. That sounds cheesy but it's so true.

What's the strangest pick-up line you've heard while working? One night this dude came into the bar and dropped $300 on the table and said to me "I'd like you to choke me out with your legs". I'd say that is pretty strange!!!

What's your favorite part of the service industry? Some Things are better left unsaid...

What's your craziest wok-related story? You would have to check back with me every night, It's never a dull moment.

What do you think is the best part of the competition? WINNING!! Not, I came in second!!! But seriously, I'd have to say the money and getting to play dress up like a "Pretty Pretty Princess."

BARTENDER BEAUTY CONTEST 2011

Sade
SCHRODER

Age: 24

What is your Ethnicity? American (German/ Cherokee)

Where are you from? Born and raised in Fort Lauderdale

Where do you work? Worked at Vibe Las Olas & Timpano Chop House

What do you do for work? I have been a Bartender and VIP cocktail waitress

What is the best part of your job? What I like best about my job is meeting new people from all over. I love bartending because it offers excitement challenge and fun. People enjoy the bar atmosphere when they are celebrating good times, or to lift their spirits during the bad times. It's nice to be a part of that. Of course the fast cash is great too!

What is your favorite part of the service industry? There are so many great things about this industry. One of the most memorable was a Thursday night at Vibe. It was 5 minutes till closing and this guy came up to me and said "I want to buy some champagne with you." I offered him a glass and he said "No I want a bottle of Dom Perignon." I informed him we were closing in 5 minutes and he didn't care. I quickly put the sparkler on the bottle and brought it out to him. He had one glass, left the rest of the bottle and tipped me $400! It was the most money I have ever made in 5 minutes.

What is your craziest work related story? One of the craziest things that happened at work was when I was working at Timpano, (which I consider to be a classy establishment), it was about 10:00 and I had a hand full of tables still eating dinner. The entertainer was playing piano when this girl walked up to him, stripped down to her thong and started dancing by herself. Everyone was shocked and could not believe their eyes. My manager handed her back her clothes and escorted her out.

What was the best part of this competition? I had so much fun in the competition. The best part for me was winning $1,000 cash and a trip to the Bahamas. This is something I normally would not do, so it was great to overcome the fear of getting up in front of a large crowd of people and feeling pretty while doing it.

Choose "Bucky Larson: Born to Be a Star," "I Don't Know How She Does It" or "What's Your Number?" Rather watch a heartwarming, inspirational tale? Then, "Moneyball," "Dolphin Tale" and "50/50" might give you the boost you need.

SEPTEMBER 2

Hey, "Jaws" fans, here is yet another shark movie. "Shark Night 3D" is filled with swimming sharks and bikini-clad college co-eds whose party at the lake takes a dangerous turn.

SEPTEMBER 9

Adam Sandler, Allen Covert and Nick Swardson have created an original comedy — "Bucky Larson: Born to Be a Star." Just when buck-toothed Bucky thinks nothing can go right, he discovers his conservative parents were once porn stars and decides he has found his calling. Look for Don Johnson, Christina Ricci and Stephen Dorff, (along with Nick Swardson in the lead).

Popularity of movies like "The Fighter" will certainly bring audiences in to see "Warrior," a film about two estranged brothers facing off in the fight of a lifetime. Nick Nolte plays father.

SEPTEMBER 16

Nicolas Winding Refn won Best Director at Cannes for "Drive," an intense action-filled drama starring Ryan Gosling (who also is slated to be in Refn's "Logan's Run" remake in 2014). Gosling is a stunt man and getaway driver for criminals. This mix seems to work until he helps his neighbor's (Carey Mulligan) husband and things go terribly wrong.

In the thriller "Straw Dogs," Amy (Kate Bosworth) finds returning to her hometown with her husband (James Marsden) is not a welcome reunion. In order to sell the family home after her father's death, they have to fix it up with the locals help, but her ex-boyfriend (Alexander Skarsgård) sets off a violent confrontation.

In "I Don't Know How She Does It," Katy Reddy (Sarah Jessica Parker) struggles to balance her home life with her challenging career. When she and her husband get promotions, things get even trickier, and that isn't the half of it. This comedy also stars Greg Kinnear, Olivia Munn, Christina Hendricks and Pierce Brosnan.

SEPTEMBER 23

Don't let "Abduction" fool you, this isn't another Bourne movie and that isn't Matt Damon in the lead, but it sure looks similar. In this action-packed adventure, Taylor Lautner is the one trying to find out who he really is and ends up coming after those responsible. Look for Sigourney Weaver, among other stars.

The heartwarming "Dolphin Tale" is a good bet for the whole family. The true story comes to life under the direction of Charlie Martin Smith. It tells the story of compassionate strangers who came together to save an injured dolphin through a scientific miracle. Available in 3-D. Look for Morgan Freeman, Harry Connick Jr. and Ashley Judd.

Gloves are off in "Killer Elite" when the hunter becomes the hunted. The cast includes gun-toting action star Jason Statham, as well as Robert DeNiro and Clive Owen. Look for unbelievable stunts, car chases and other high-energy thrills.

In "Moneyball," Brad Pitt stars as Oakland A's general manager Billy Beane in a true story. When the going gets tough, Beane starts a revolution, bringing in an ivy leaguer (Jonah Hill) to help him recreate the game of baseball so he can get the wins.

SEPTEMBER 30

"50/50" proves that humor can be found in even the darkest situations. This drama-dy is inspired by writer Will Reiser's true story of being diagnosed suddenly with cancer at a young age. It stars Seth Rogen, Joseph Gordon-Levitt, Anna Kendrick, Bryce Dallas Howard, Anjelica Huston and Philip Baker Hall.

When Will Atenton (Daniel Craig) and his wife (Rachel Weisz) move into their "Dream House" with their two daughters, they find it was the location of a murder scene; but what Atenton finds, when he begins investigating, is even more horrifying. Look for Naomi Watts.

In "What's Your Number?" Ally Darling (Anna Faris) thinks that the number of lovers she has had will take her out of the marriage pool, so, in an effort not to increase her "numbers," she looks for the best "ex" of her life. Chris Evans also stars.

Chef of the Month

Spin Ultra Lounge Jason Feinberg

Where can you find the hottest young chef in South Florida? At SPIN Ultra Lounge, in Mizner Park. For Chef Jason Feinberg the energy of the restaurant business has always appealed to him, but it was the heartbeat of the kitchen that captured his attention and became the focus of his dreams. After spending his teens working various jobs in the industry, Feinberg entered the Florida Culinary Institute with the goal of becoming not a just a chef, but a great chef.

Upon graduating, Feinberg caught the attention of celebrity Chef Oliver Saucy who made him his protege. Working with Saucy at the highly lauded Cafe Maxx, Feinberg developed his own distinctive style, a careful blend of Florida Regional Cuisine, Northern Italian, French, and Pacific Rim. Shortly after that, he took over his mentor's roll as Executive Chef at East City Grill. Here, Feinberg impressed his loyal clientele with his tantalizing talents and innovative interpretations. "I love the creative aspect of cooking," he states. I always search out the freshest ingredients and then look for ways to implement more exotic elements into the mix. My goal in cooking is for the taste and flavor to bring you beyond satisfied. The essence of the food must create a delicious unity, while at the same time, delightfully surprising the palate with some unexpected elements."

After his time with East City Grill, Feinberg moved on to the world renowned Barton G Restaurant Group in Miami. At Barton G, Feinberg studied the technique of creative presentation and brought his cuisine to new bounds. With the Barton

G Restaurant Group, his cuisine style evolved with a modernist flair from haute cuisine to molecular gastronomy.

"This restaurant group is so cutting edge, we always had the most high tech equipment and always executed the most modern techniques" he states. For Barton G, he was the Executive Chef for three high profile properties and also worked at their premiere property, The Villa by Barton G, which is the former Versace Mansion.

Feinberg's newest venture is a high profile lounge called Spin Ultra Lounge, which is located in Boca Raton. At Spin, his cuisine is playful and somewhat whimsical. He brings a nostalgic touch to his cuisine with innovated recreations and also adds some modernist techniques to surprise the palate. He offers delightful small plates with interesting presentations, all meant to be shared and bring people together in a social environment. "Imagination is a critical element in truly great cuisine," declares the energetic young chef. "Cooking is a blend of art and science, I enjoy experimenting and the process that leads to the next new dish."

InTheBiz®

Employee of the Month

Amanda Zuckerman

Spin Ultra Lounge in Mizner Park, Boca

What is your job there? VIP bottle service

Where are you from originally? Long Island, NY

How long have you been InTheBiz®? I had my first ITB job when I was 18, promoting clubs in NYC

What do you like best about Serving? I really enjoy the people I work with. We have a great staff, and I love meeting new people.

Why did you choose to become a server? When I moved to Florida from LA about 6 months ago, I was doing Real Estate, and decided that I wanted to meet new people, and make some money too! So I decided to do Real Estate during the day, and work at Spin at night. I'm a sales kinda girl.

What is the most ordered bottle? The most ordered bottle I get at Spin is probably Kettle One, or Grey Goose.

What can you share with new bartenders/server to make the most in tips? I treat my guests at Spin as if they were coming to my party, make them feel comfortable and make sure they have a lot of fun. Getting bottle service at our club is a treat, so I make sure the drinks are always full, the tables always top notch, and make sure they get the celebrity treatment.

What is the worst pick up line you ever heard? "Are you my facebook friend?"

What would you do to improve your work environment? The more the merrier. I let everyone know when I'm working and what our specials are on Facebook, and the Spin Ultra Lounge Facebook page. We're a new club and have a great turn out, I'm excited to see how crazy it's going to get this season!

What would you like to see InTheBiz® Magazine implement? I'd like ITB to bring recognition to our new club and bring club hoppers from all over to experience how great this place really is.

If you are interested in visiting Spin and making a Bottle Service reservation with Amanda contact Spin Ultra Lounge

Rockin With InTheBiz®

BIG CITY DOGS BY RACHEL GALVIN EDITOR

When not working at their 9-5 jobs, the BIG CITY DOGS are playing their hearts out at locales around South Florida. When you get the chance to see these classic rockers, you will hear tunes from the Allman Brothers, Tom Petty, Rolling Stones, Lynyrd Skynyrd, The Doors, Huey Lewis, Billy Joel, the Beatles, ZZ Top and too many others to mention.

The band members come from diverse musical backgrounds. Pat Joyce (rhythm guitar, vocals, harmonica), Rick Smith (lead guitar, vocals) and Doug Kurtock (drums and percussion) decided to form a band originally in 2009. With the addition of John Crockett (bass guitar, vocals) in 2010, the BIG CITY DOGS took to the stage. They have been loving what they do ever since. They said, "There is nothing better than working with talented musicians and having fun doing something that you love to do. We have a shared vision of a classic style that drives the music. We keep working on the sound... crafting it. But at the same time, the band is like a family of friends that keeps growing. It's definitely a lot of fun."

The BIG CITY DOGS can be seen at venues like Gatsby's, Fishtales, Jimbo's Sandbar, Texas Rose Saloon, Maguire's Hill 16, The Hollywood Beach Theater, as well as local outdoor city concerts. They also work with charitable organizations, such as Big Bike Riders Children's Fund, the American Cancer Society, The Frankie Foundation, Kids-4-Kids Charity Fest and many private events.

For more information or to book the BIG CITY DOGS, visit www.bigcitydogsband.com. Also find them on Facebook and YouTube.

SLEJJ - (Scott, Lindley, Eldad, Joe, Jerry)

SLEJJ (acronym for the members of the band) is a 5-piece, high-energy party band consisting of the musical talents of Lindley Billy (Vocals & Guitar), Scott Goodman (Lead Guitar & Vocals), Eldad Kira (Keyboards & Vocals),

Joe Mendella (Bass Guitar) and Jerry O'Malley (Drums & Vocals). The band formed in January 2011 after members from the bands EXCESS and Backstreets merged. The talented musicians were in search of a lead vocalist with a great range, stage presence and overall professionalism. Lindley was introduced to the band by a fan, and was immediately hired.

The band's influences range from classical music, to jazz-fusion, to country to hard and classic rock. The core of the SLEJJ song library is classic rock, but also sprinkled in are genres such as dance music, new rock and southern rock. SLEJJ performs in various venues in south Florida, and is rapidly developing a large and loyal following. Their fans can't wait to see them, and venues can't wait to hire them. Check out their Facebook page for their monthly calendar facebook.com/slejpartyband.
